ADVANTAGE.

And that advantage is realized on the stage and in one's personal life.

Life is unscripted. Learning the same mental agility skills that enable a team of improvisational performers to create an unscripted scene on stage is as beneficial as it is fun to learn.

This workshop delivers insight and tools that help to improve creativity, confidence, audition success and a deeper connection with your scene partners.
