

Improv for Personal and Professional Development

Level 2

A fun, five-week workshop series that will enhance your communication style and improve your unique voice.

Learn how to leverage the proven benefits of improvisation to boost your creativity and connect confidently with others.

FIVE 2-HOUR CLASSES, TUESDAY EVENINGS

WHO: These classes are ideal for:

- Success-minded individuals.
- Entrepreneurs and business pros.
- College grads and students.
- Actors and voice-over pros.

WHEN: The next workshop begins Tuesday, July 11th 2017 at 7:00 p.m.

WHERE: Back Bay Conference Center, 3415 Michelson Drive, Irvine, California 92612

WHY: IMPROV SKILLS GIVE A COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE IN LIFE.

A growing number of forward thinking organizations are training their employees in the same skills that enable a team of improvisational performers to create an unscripted scene on stage.

Now you can experience the personal and professional benefits of these improv skills through this workshop.

On the constantly changing stage of life and business, applying improv-based tenets of collaboration, trust and situational advancement has been proven effective.

Meet Your Workshop Leaders

Bob Doll

Lee Godden

Advantage Improv co-founders Bob Doll and Lee Godden have senior management backgrounds. Both are skilled business trainers and professional improvisers.

Comments from recent IPPD grads:

- "Bob and Lee create the perfect environment of fun, delight, challenge, safety and teamwork."
- "This program challenges your comfort zones, while also making you feel completely safe."
- "It was a great experience."
- "It was fantastic."

Seats are limited. Enroll now.
Call 888-827-2328.

Visit www.AdvantageImprov.com
Email info@AdvantageImprov.com